Public Hearing About Guidelines for Examination of Patent Applications

By Eduardo Colonna Rosman | eduardo.rosman@kasznarleonardos.com

The Brazilian Patent Office has now started public hearing proceedings regarding the second block of consultations on the new “Guidelines for the Examination of Patent Applications”.

The notice published at the Patent Office's website may be found here. If you wish us to provide you with a full English language of the resolution please contact us.

Interested parties have until May 15, 2015 to send their suggestions, which should be addressed electronically to the email saesp@inpi.gov.br, by fax to (+ 55 21) 3037-3638 or presented directly to one of INPI reception desks.

After the above deadline, the Patent Office will present the comments received from the public and the final text of the guidelines.

For more detailed information on this matter, please contact us via e-mail through mail@kasznarleonardos.com.
